The Old Prison

– Judith Wright

The rows of cells are unroofed, a flute for the wind's mouth, who comes with a breath of ice from the blue caves of the south.

O dark and fierce day:
the wind like an angry bee hunts for the black honey in the pits of the hollow sea.

Waves of shadow wash
the empty shell bone-bare,
and like a bone it sings a bitter song of air.

Who built and laboured here?
The wind and the sea say
-Their cold nest is broken and they are blown away-They did not breed nor love, each in his cell alone
cried as the wind now cries through this flute of stone.

22. Prepare a lesson plan to teach nouns with the passage given below:

The girls went to the mall with their mother. First, they stopped and looked at the hamsters, puppies, kittens, mice and birds. Next, they wanted to check out the store with toys. They looked at the dolls, jacks and jump ropes. While they were walking around, they saw their teacher, their neighbor and the librarian at the mall! The girls left and went home. They were exhausted and hungry. When they arrived home, their first stop was the kitchen. They grabbed a snack and ate it in their bedroom. After resting for a while, the girls decided to play outside.
